

Information regarding must course registrations by Non-BA students

For Fall 2020, the Department of Business Administration will NOT be able to offer the department's required (must) courses to Non-BA students as "free electives". Our required courses are already quite crowded. We apologize for any inconvenience. Have a great semester!