

BA 4314 Computer Applications in Management

BA 4314 Computer Applications in Management will be open for registration in the add-drop period. The capacity for this course is 22. You can attend the course until the add-drop period if you plan to register for the course. However, regular registration procedures will apply and there is no guarantee that you will have the right to register with full attendance. Please attend at your own risk.